Dear Sir,

As a valued customer we are providing you with advanced notice of revised requirements for the referenced standards and applicable updates. Because of these revised requirements, we are advising all Applicants who have products listed to this standard of this Standards Update Notice.

This will affect your Listing status so it is important to review this letter carefully.

Standard	Effective Date of Revised Requirements	New/Revised Requirements
Referenced Above	April 1, 2008	See Summary of Changes under Description of Change

Important Information Regarding this Standards Update Notification

1. Your currently listed products to the above standard, as well as their listing reports, will need to be reviewed against the new/revised requirements noted above. As part of this review it will be determined whether any additional information is needed or further evaluation and testing is required on product samples. See attached.
2. If the products currently listed will not be produced after the Effective Date for these new/revised requirements, please advise us of these products and their listings will be withdrawn on that date.
3. Currently listed products must be found in compliance with the new/revised requirements by the Effective Date or the authorization to apply the WHI Mark will be withdrawn.
4. All new products submitted will be evaluated to the new/revised requirements noted above unless you specifically request otherwise in writing. Please note that new product listings will be withdrawn on the Effective Date unless the product is found in compliance with the new/revised requirements.

Please contact your Intertek Engineering Office listed below, to determine what action will be needed to maintain your WHI Listing. If this letter does not pertain to your reports or if addresses, contacts, etc. are incorrect, please make a note on it and fax it back to 905 678-7131.
